

Inspired by Cézanne; the colors of Provence.

3-Day workshop, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Day 1: Studio still life

Bathed in the soft light of Provence, everyday objects Come to life. Guided by the spirit of Cézanne, you will explore the balance of forms and the magic of color, in an atmosphere where every brushstroke Becomes poetry.

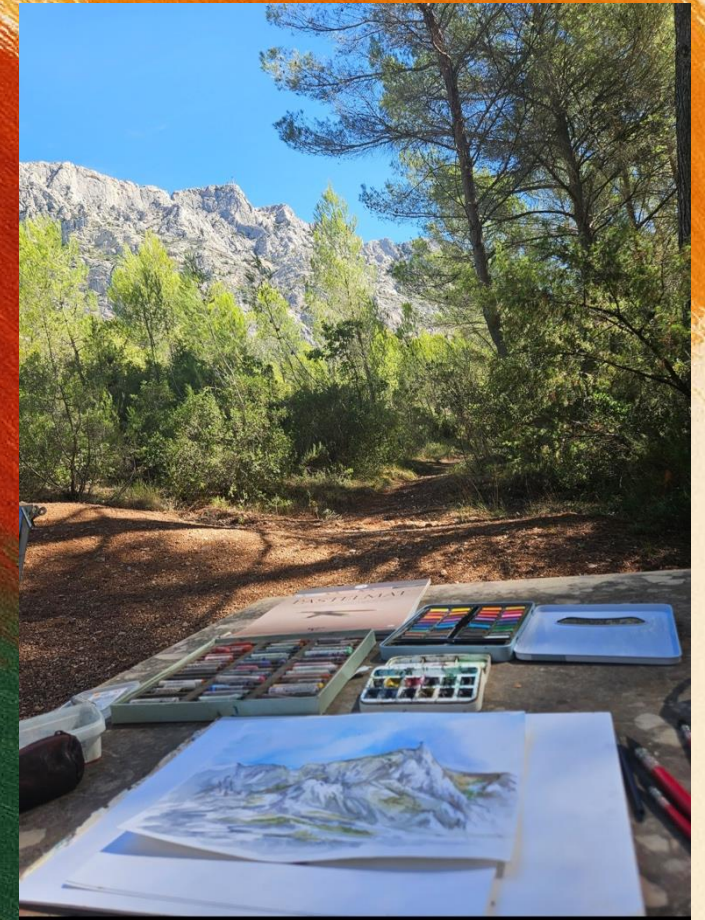

The Bibémus ochres and Mount Sainte-Victoire.

Day 2

Let yourself be enveloped by the serenity of the ochre cliffs and centuries-old pines of Bibémus a true artistic haven that leads us quite naturally toward the sublime Sainte-Victoire, so dear to the soul of Cézanne.

Water's reflections and flashes of ochre.

Day 3: Aix Travel Journal

Murmuring fountains, cobblestone alleys, and sun-kissed facades... the old town of Aix-en-Provence transforms into a living painting. With pencils and watercolors in hand, you will capture the soul of this elegant city, amidst shimmering waters and monuments steeped in history.

